

- Amazing Experience
- I sang for many years in the Ajax Ontario Community Choir. Started off as an alto, but later changed to tenor. One night, at practice, we had a new tenor join. He sat next to me and told me his name was Fleming Lindblad. I told him I used to know a chap named Lindblad (not a common name) – and he said, “Was his name Karl?” Then I said, “Well, yes it was, but this was in Nova Scotia.” Then he said, “Yes, in New Glasgow, NS. He’s my brother!”
- Karl was in my Sunday School class, at Trinity United Church, when I was 16 – and I was the teacher! – he was 15!
- We chatted away about NS – then Fleming asked me if I was related to Bob Nicholson, who was a friend of his younger brother.
- Small world, eh?
