

Something to ponder:

As we all face Christmas 2020 with Covid-19 heed the message within this:

A Farmer's Prayer A pastor attended a men's breakfast in the middle of a rural farming area of the country.

The group had asked an older farmer, decked out in bib overalls, to say grace for the morning breakfast: "Lord, I hate buttermilk," the farmer began.

The visiting pastor opened one eye to glance at the farmer and wonder where this was going, growing concerned. Without missing a beat, the farmer continued, "And Lord, you know I don't much care for raw white flour." Then the farmer added, "But Lord, when you mix them all together and bake them, I do love warm fresh biscuits.

So Lord, when things come up that we don't like, when life gets hard, when we don't understand what you're saying to us, help us to just relax and wait until you are done mixing.

It will probably be even better than them biscuits. Amen." Within this prayer there is great wisdom for all when it comes to complicated situations like we are experiencing in the world today.

Stay strong my friends, because our life is being mixed with lots of things that we don't care for.....relax and wait until the mixing is done.

Let's all do our part to keep each other safe God bless us all!
